Reurlet of March 17, 1951, setting forth the results of your investigation based on information made available by [redacted]

The contents of reurlet have been carefully reviewed and it appears that [redacted] [redacted] However, it is believed that [redacted] additional investigation and analysis should be given to [redacted] this matter in order to effect a more positive identification.
As you are aware, [redacted]

In the first place, it is noted that according to [redacted]

Inasmuch as it is definitely known that Yakovlev served as a Soviet agent who handled the activities of a number of espionage agents such as Harry Gold, it is logical to assume that unknown subject [redacted]

It is suggested that their photographs be displayed to Gold, Thomas L. Black, Elizabeth Bentley and any other confessed espionage agent who logically may have come in contact with the individual who preceded Yakovlev in his activities in this country. It is possible that in this manner definite information may be developed indicating the exact extent of [redacted] activities as Soviet Agents.

A review has been made of all Bureau files pertaining to [redacted] but no information was found therein which would assist in effecting a positive identification. It is noted,

Max Yergan, in February, 1944, visited Canada, making several public addresses, among which was a radio broadcast on the subject "The Atlantic Charter and the Colonial People in Africa." Yergan is said to have referred to the necessity for carrying forward a "broadly conceived plan for meeting the education and health needs, providing the economic development, and insuring speedy advancement toward complete responsible self government for the African people."

Subsequently, on April 14, 1944, a conference was held by the subject organization at the Institute for International Democracy. Paul Robeson, Negro singer, who is Honorary Chairman of the Council on African Affairs, presided at the meeting. It is said he made the opening statement that the purpose of the conference was to consider the relation of the American people and their Government to the African peoples during the war and in the postwar period. In his statement he referred to the Soviet Government as an example of how sympathetic planning can transform a backward country into one of high social and political level. Dr. William J. Schiefflen, who is Vice Chairman of the organization, also spoke and stated that the Council on African Affairs was growing and that a larger program was being planned for the future. Max Yergan referred to the alleged struggle against Fascism and "forced labor" in Africa. He also referred to the necessity of determining the essential policies which will provide "for the general advancement of the African people toward achieving their proper place in the modern world community."

Present at the conference were the following:

Walter P. Walker, Consul-General for Liberia.
John H. Shaw, Consul-General for Ethiopia.
Dr. Max Horn, Consul for the Belgian Congo Government.
Dr. Jan Albert Coris, Commissioner of Information for Belgium.
Jean de la Roche, Colonial Administrator for the French Committee of Liberation.
Anatole Yakovlev, Member of the Staff of the New York Consulate of the Soviet Union.

SUBJECT:

DATE: April 25, 1951

Leo Rosten, with Look Magazine, called me in connection with the story that he is doing on traitors. In order to make his story complete he desires certain photographs of individuals mentioned in the story which he does not have and wondered if we could assist him in securing copies of these photographs. He has indicated a desire for photographs of the following:

Semen Markovich ~~Semenov~~
 Anatoli Antonovich ~~Yakovlev~~
 Jacob ~~Golos~~
 Anatoli ~~Gromov~~
 Colonel Bykov
 Dr. Allen May
 Richard Brigg

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
 HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED

We have found in our files photographs of Semon Markovich Semenov, Jacob Golos, Anatoli Gromov and Anatoli Antonovich Yakovlev. The files do not reflect the sources of these photographs but apparently are official documents such as State Department documents. It is believed that we would be safe in making these available and it is recommended that Leo Rosten be furnished with these photographs to be used to the Bureau without attribution to the Bureau.
